

Christmas in New York City

Join us on our annual shopping trip to New York City. This always popular trip will allow you to join in the festivities and see for yourself that there's nothing like Christmas in New York. You can ice skate and enjoy the beautiful tree at Rockefeller Center, shop your way down Fifth Avenue, or ride a horse and buggy through Central Park. The lights and decorations of the City are truly a sight to behold, especially as night falls.

Please note if you choose to purchase theater tickets or tickets to the Radio City Holiday Spectacular, you should purchase tickets for a 1:00 or 2:00pm show.

We will provide you with some information about the activities available in New York but the day is yours to do as you choose. We will be meeting on Madison Avenue (exact location to be determined the day of the trip) for our departure home. We will meet at 5:15pm for a 5:30pm departure.

This trip is recommended for ages 8 and over. All participants must have their own seat. Children are not allowed to sit on parent's laps. Passengers in possession of alcohol on the bus, or determined to be disruptive due to intoxication will be required to find other transportation for the return trip.
