

Halloween in Salem

No place celebrates Halloween quite like Salem, Massachusetts. Whether you are seeking the changing leaves and cooler weather of autumn, or the ghosts and goblins that Salem is famous for, you will find it on our trip today.

Salem's Haunted Happenings is America's most exciting Halloween Festival. 125 events, museums, attractions, ships, haunted houses and fantastic dining options are yours to explore. Streets are filled with fabulous retail merchants, dramatic productions, psychic fairs, presentations of scary and seafaring tales, games and an all around horror scene.

We will leave early this morning so that we can get as much out of our day in Salem as possible. The day is yours to find your own adventures. Please note: it is your responsibility to be at the designated meeting spot at 3:45pm for a 4:00pm departure.

Passengers in possession of alcohol on the bus, or determined to be disruptive due to intoxication will be required to find other transportation for the return trip.
