Historic Deerfield: Heritage Holiday Tour

Step back in time as we journey to Historic Deerfield, MA. Our day begins with a guided bus tour of Main Street viewing all the historic homes decorated for the holidays. Following the tour a delicious buffet luncheon awaits us at the Historic Deerfield Inn. After lunch, we will embark on a tour of the Stebbins House. Built in 1799, the Asa Stebbins House features Federal period architecture, wall treatments, and decorative arts. It was the first brick house in Deerfield, and the interior of the house features furnishings dating from 1790 to 1830. Here we will also enjoy an open hearth cooking demonstration and a chance to visit the museum shop and bookstore. Our final brief stop of the day will be at Richardson's Candy Kitchen where you can browse and perhaps purchase a sweet treat to bring home. A great day, just in time for the holidays, close to home! Don't miss the adventure.
